

Heidi Morse, Ph.D. Archivist & Cultural Historian

Skills

Digital curation and digital collection management
Writing for a wide range of audiences, including professional journals
Effective communication & collaboration skills
Experience promoting archival engagement
Working knowledge of archival standards: EAD, DACS, & Dublin Core

Experience

Ann Arbor District Library Archives | Library Technician

FEB 2020 - PRESENT, ANN ARBOR, MI

- Manage digital collection with 2,500+ records
- Collaborate with community partners & local organizations
- Acquire local history materials & conduct oral histories
- Lead innovative archival engagement initiatives
- Produce documentary film about school desegregation

Ann Arbor District Library Archives | Public Library Associate

APRIL 2018 - JAN 2020, ANN ARBOR

- Digitized newspaper clippings & photo negatives
- Curated digital collection with 2,500+ records

Toledo Museum of Art | Archives Research Assistant

FEB 2019 - AUG 2019, TOLEDO, OH

- Processed museum administrative records
- Wrote trustee biographies using local history resources

University of Michigan | Lecturer I

SEPT 2016 - DEC 2018, ANN ARBOR, MI

- Designed and taught undergraduate courses in American literature, Black Studies, and print & visual culture
 - Wrote and published academic journal articles & an edited book
-

Education

Wayne State University | MLIS in progress | Expected May 2022

University of California, Santa Cruz | PhD, Literature | 2014

St. Olaf College | BA, English & Women's Studies | 2008

Awards

Summer Fellowship | National Endowment for the Humanities | 2018

Exemplary Diversity Scholar Award | University of Michigan | 2016

Dissertation Award | Rhetoric Society of America | 2015